The early date will accommodate those in nearby towns who have found it difficult to attend in the past on account of bad roads.

HEALTH CRUSADERS COMING

The Health Crusaders are coming to Morrisville on Thursday, Sept. 7. In the afternoon at the town hall, the Lady of the Health Crusaders who tells health fortune will tell the health fortune of boys and girls. She will be assisted by a nurse who will weigh and measure the children and give them charts of their weight in comparison with the normal weights for their lengths and ages. In addition to this about four o'clock a show will be given. All the children are invited and everything is free.

In the evening there will be motion pictures and a health talk by H. W. Slocum, secretary of the Vermont Tuberculosis Association. Mr. Slocum states he has movies that will amuse and instruct and are guaranteed not to bore. Everyone is invited to both afternoon and evening, although the afternoon is more especially for children.

The exhibit is sent out by the Tuberculosis Department of the State Board of Health and the Vermont Tuberculosis Association. It will visit one town in every county in the state under the management of the district health officers.

Mt. Mansfield Celebration a Success

Bad Weather in Morning Kept Many Away From This Event Up Among the Clouds—Afternoon Was Ideal—Notes From Other Papers.

While the threatening weather in the forenoon made the great celebration on the summit of Mt. Mansfield on Labor Day anything but a financial success, those who did go enjoyed an ideal day and are all lavish with words of commendation upon the wonderful road that has been built to the Summit House and the grand views they witnessed from the mountain top.

The full program, just as advertised, was carried out, as those behind this great Vermont enterprise always keep their word with the public, win or lose. That is why business at the Summit House has grown so fast this year that large additions must be made for another season, or many will have to be turned away, even as many have been during August of this season.

The Rutland Herald had a special despatch in Tuesday morning's edition which said:

"The completion of the new $42,000 stone road to the summit of Mount Mansfield, which is called the best mountain road in America, was celebrated Monday when about 400 people and 40 automobiles made the ascent to the top of the mountain."

"A buffet lunch was served in a large tent under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davis of the Waterbury Inn."

"Three bands, from Morrisville, Stowe and Johnson, furnished music. After dinner a speech was made by F. G. Fleetwood of Morrisville."

"The celebration took place just 52 years after the completion of the old wagon road to the summit."

The Real Election

Is Next Tuesday for State and County Officials and Members of the Legislature. On YOUR Vote Next Tuesday Depends Who Shall Serve You.

It determines whether we have a Dollar State Tax or not.

If you vote wisely and well, and see your neighbors so vote, there is NO need of any state tax.

One candidate for governor pledges himself to do his part, if you do your part and nominate him and a legislature that will carry out your will.

That candidate knows what a dollar costs to earn or make and will spend it accordingly.

Your highest duty is to vote according to your Freeman's oath next Tuesday.

Your next highest duty is to see that every citizen also votes.

Vote.

If your name is not on the check list, see it is put on next Saturday. It is the last chance.

Field Day a Success—Baseball Schedule for the Week

The field day Saturday, held under the auspices of the Baseball Association, was a great success, about $200 worth of entrance tickets having been sold. The game between Belvidere and Johnson proved very interesting, with Belvidere winning by the tune of 7 to 10. Another game will be played by the same teams here this week Wednesday. The St. Albans Independents crossed bats with the locals in the afternoon when a close game was played. The batteries were Bibbey and Delaney for St. Albans and Willard and Westover for the local team. These were well supported. Willard struck out 11 of the visitors, while only three of the locals were fanned out by Bibbey. One safe hit was made by the visitors, and seven off St. Albans. One unusual catch was made in center field by Shanley, resulting with victory for the locals, 2 to 4. One very disagreeable point to a good many visitors was the ill manners in speech and action from a certain number of fans toward visitors coming from out of town. Why not ask yourself if you would like to meet such conditions in a strange place? Is this very elevating? Both teams could be complimented for their good conduct throughout the day and game. The local team played at Morrisville Thursday, with Duffey in the box, and lost, 6 to 10. This week Thursday the Burlington Indians will play here. Saturday afternoon Waterbury will play the second game at this place, with Newton in the box.

Dance at Stowe Thursday Night

If the weather man will obligingly predict a severe winter it will help some, with no coal in sight. We know how to take his predictions.

With the buffet cars abolished, railroad companies are putting library cars on their through trains. But the books are not hollow.

summit of Mount Mansfield was completed at a cost of $40,000, under the guidance of that master builder, "Governor" Bingham of Stowe, and in those days it was considered a wonderful engineering feat.

The present hotel had been built in 1857 and the lumber had to be hauled up a bridge path. The half-way house and road to it were built in 1855.

The present automobile road just completed at a cost of $42,000 is the best built and graded automobile road in the country. It is 4½ miles from the pretty new bungalow toll house to the top and the road is built of crushed stone, blasted from the mountain rock, which in many places forms the foundation. The drainage is perfect. The 75 water-bars were replaced by 75 Armo steel culverts, permanent and effective. Craig O. Burt of Stowe had full charge of the work and he can give the expert points on building mountain roads.

The Mount Mansfield Hotel has had a wonderful patronage this summer—far in excess of any previous year.

The Smugglers' Notch road is now completed and this rivals any mountain road in the country.

In 1875 Theodore Roosevelt visited Mount Mansfield Hotel and his name with a "Jr." attached is on the register and Room No. 11 is known as the Roosevelt Room. Many other notables have visited the hotel and almost every state is represented on the hotel register.

The view from the hotel is unsurpassed. On a clear day Montreal can be seen and the Adirondacks and White Mountains beyond the fertile Vermont valleys. Hay fever sufferers find instant relief here.

The celebration Monday was a grand success.

Mrs. Mary Knapp King

Mrs. Mary King died at the home of her grandson, Harold Haley, last Saturday morning, aged 85 years and five months. Mrs. King was born in Lowell, Vt., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp. She was married in 1855 to Winthrop Coolbeth, who gave his life in the Civil War. In 1864 she married Charles C. King, who died in 1906. Of her children by her first marriage there remain one son, Elvado Coolbeth of Lowell, and one daughter, Mrs. Nina Trainor of Eden Mills. Those of the second marriage remaining are Mrs. Carrie Peters of Concord, Mrs. Cora Stone of Long Island, Mrs. Nellie Titus of Boston and Mrs. Angeletta Haley of Bloomfield, Conn. There are also many grandchildren, the best known locally being the children of Mrs. Haley. All of her children and many of her grand-children came here to attend her in her last illness or for the funeral. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. Haley on Monday afternoon, Rev. A. H. Gilmore officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Turn to the Right

It is needless to say much about this wonderful play, as it is known to you all. It ran for two years in the Gaiety theatre, New York, and is advertised throughout the country in pictures, etc. The heart interest and homely comedy is unsurpassed in any play of recent years. It has the heart throbs of the "Old Homestead" and the comedy of the "Vinegar Buyer." Don't fail to see the masterpiece of its kind, "Turn to the Right."—Advertisement.

A CARNIVAL AT LAKE EDEN

A very pretty scene was enacted at Lake Eden last Saturday night by a party of lads and lasses, an ideal moonlight night, a corn roast on the beach, boat rides by moonlight and dancing on the porch of Camp Comfort cottage. Miss Isadore Hood, with more than a dozen of her friends, accepted an invitation from her aunt and uncle to spend an evening at Camp Comfort beach, to which place they were taken in conveyances through the courtesy of Leo Griswold and Herbert Lanpher. Imagine their surprise on approaching the lake to see the cottage decorated with Japanese lanterns and the beach lighted with colored lamps and boats all lined up on the shore—and everything in readiness for roasting the corn and toasting the marsh-mallows which they enjoyed to the limit. Later came the boat rides by moonlight and after that dancing, with music furnished by Mrs. H. E. Smalley's graphophone. This was an enjoyable finish to the evening's festivities. At an early hour the party took leave of Mr. and Mrs. Denio, declaring they had the best of good times.
